The minutes of the meeting of February 11, 2021 were reviewed and approved as written.

The Public Hearing on the 2022 budget was opened. Trustee Brunson went over details of the Budget. He stated that there had been a small change in original budget proposal as there is a new Receptionist and the salary was raised from $10.00 per hour to $15.00 per hour. The 2022 Budget is 1.5% higher than the 2021 budget due to salary increases for clerical staff and Judge. He pointed out that no increases had been given for the 2021 budget. Bob Abbott moved to accept the 2022 Budget and close the Public Hearing. Chris Brown seconded the motion which passed 4-0,

Trustee Brunson opened the Public Hearing on a Resolution to transfer $100,000.00 into the Rainy-Day fund and pointed out that this was a paper transfer only. Bob Abbott moved to approve the transfer of the money and Maureen Zimmerman seconded the motion which passed 4-0

Trustee Brunson opened the Public Hearing on a Resolution to move an additional appropriation from the Rainy-Day Fund to support the expense of Capital Projects of repairing and restriping the parking lots of the Small Claims Court and the Township offices. Bob Abbott moved to approve the additional appropriation and Chris Brown seconded the motion, which passed 4-0.

Under new business, Trustee Brunson told the Board that the growth in Franklin Township had increased tremendously. He said that from 2000 to 2010 it had increased 70%. The expected growth from 2010- 2022 is 124%

The meeting was adjourned at 5:55p.m.
